RE: Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act
Notice of Operations Closure

This letter is to advise you, as the Oregon Dislocated Workers Unit contact, of Cenveo Corporation's decision to close its Portland, OR commercial printing facility (the "Company"). This correspondence and the information contained herein serves as full satisfaction of the Company's obligation under the Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act (1988), 29 U.S.C. § 2101, et seq.

The closure of the Cenveo commercial printing facility located at 2000 NW Wilson Street, Portland, OR 97209 will occur between January 30, 2017 and March 31, 2017.

The information required by the Act to be set out in this notice follows:

The name and address of the employment site where the plant closure will occur:

Cenveo Corporation
Graphic Arts Center
2000 NW Wilson Street
Portland, OR 97209

Whether the planned action is permanent or temporary and, if the entire plant is to be closed a statement to that effect.

The closure of the Portland facility's operations will be permanent.

The expected dates when plant closing will commence and when employees will be separated.

Facility operations will close between January 30, 2017 and March 31, 2017. Most employees affected by the plant closing are expected to be permanently laid off between, January 30, 2017 and March 31, 2017.

A statement as to the existence of applicable bumping rights, if any.

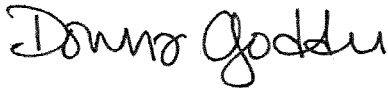

Due to plant closure, there will not be any bumping rights.

Name and telephone number of company official to contact for further information.

Donna Goddu, Human Resources Manager
503-248-7103

Attached to this letter is a listing of all Portland Cenveo employees affected by this plant closing including job titles of positions and the number of employees in each job category.

Very truly yours,

Donna Goddu
